Dear Sir:

There are hereinafter set out the names, official status, and last known addresses of the official representatives of the United Soviet of Socialist Republics in the United States as reflected by their "Foreign Official Status Notification" forms, commonly known as PRL forms, on file with the State Department.

It has been for some time the voluntary practice of the embassies to file such forms with the Protocol Division of the State Department, thus providing such information concerning officials and employees of the several governments. This practice was not compulsory until the passage of the Acts of June 28, 1940, July 1, 1940, and September 16, 1940, when instructions were issued to all embassies that it would be necessary for all officers, officials, and employees (other than Ambassadors, Ministers, and members of their mission whose names appear in the diplomatic list) to file such forms.

No time limit has been set within which there should be compliance with the instructions, therefore, the following list of names is not necessarily all inclusive. In all instances where the PRL forms have photographs affixed, the photographs have been copied, as indicated hereinafter by an asterisk (*).

To 1200 OCT 31 March 1945SUBVERSIVE SITUATION ANNEX

ESTIMATE OF THE SITUATION - "Utter nonsense" Dr. Henrich Bruening's reply to PRAVDA story; claims he has no intentions of returning to Germany. Sidney HILLMAN to report on London World Conference at Boston, Massachusetts meeting. AMELIAN COMMITTEE formed; seeks $50,000 for work in Russia. Massachusetts Legislature adopts resolution asking President Roosevelt and Congress to "halt the trend towards national socialism." CPA activities in New Hampshire increase under leadership of Elba Chase NELSON. Hartford, Connecticut CONGRESS CLUBS back FEPC. Discharged Negro soldier new vice-president of CPA in Connecticut. Two German PWs who escaped from Fort Devens, Massachusetts enclosure recaptured in Boston. Report Edward Holton JAMES has returned from Montreal, Canada, where he was the guest of "Bloc Popular" Movement. SOCIALIST PARTY convention at Springfield, Massachusetts, to hear Harry FLEISCHMAN, national secretary. Sabotage report negative.

SENSITIVE AREAS:BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, AND VICINITY

COMMUNIST - The DAILY WORKER of 27 March revealed that Ilya EHRENBURG, writing in PRAVDA, Communist Party organ in Russia, minced no words about "the schemes of reactionary Catholic groups, centered around the exiled Henrich Bruening, to set up some kind of German-Catholic state and thus preserve the basis of German imperialism." Bruening, now a professor of government at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, held the German Chancellorship from March, 1930, until May, 1932.

The ASSOCIATED PRESS, in further discussing the charge, quoted EHRENBURG as saying "in East Prussia I met a Catholic vicar who explained a plan to create a 'strong Catholic-German power.' Other priests spoke of the same thing. We have before us not dreamers, but representatives of a disciplined organization." In a statement to the Boston DAILY RECORD, Dr. Bruening characterized the PRAVDA story as "utter nonsense." Reverend Michael J. Ahern, S. J., of Weston College, said "the whole thing is pure calumny. I know most of the Catholic newspapers in the United States, and there hasn't been a word in any of them along these lines. As usual, PRAVDA misstates the attitude of the Catholic Church." The INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE quoted Bruening as saying that he had no intention of returning to Germany. (B-2)

Informants report that the CPA recruiting campaign in this area is well underway. Recruiters have been instructed that emphasis must be placed on quality rather than quantity in selecting new members. Particular stress is to be placed upon recruiting members from among AFL unions, Italians, and Negroes. (B-2) The FREDERICK TOUGLASS CLUB of Boston and the CENTRAL SQUARE CLUB of Cambridge, both active CPA units, took a leading part in collecting signatures endorsing the state FEPC bill in Massachusetts. (B-2) Dr. Harry WARD, author of the book THE SOVIET SPIRIT, will speak at the Communist-front SAMUEL ADAMS SCHOOL FOR SOCIAL STUDIES in Boston on 2-April. (A-2)

4

Sidney HILLMAN, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America and the CIO Political Action Committee, will report on the accomplishments of the London World Conference at a Faneuil Hall mass meeting in Boston 1-April. Leading CIO officials in the New England area will also be heard, including Joseph SALERNO, Communist suspect and president of the Massachusetts CIO, who will preside at the meeting. (B-2)

According to the DAILY WORKER of 27 March, a conference of representatives of New England locals of the Textile Workers Union, CIO, held in Boston on 25 March, voted to withdraw the union's request for a strike vote sought two weeks ago. (B-2) Robert MILLS, Communist suspect and Boston Port agent for the NATIONAL MARITIME UNION, CIO, entered a plea this week for unemployment insurance for the maritime industry, one of the few major groups so far omitted from its coverage. In making his plea, MILLS pointed to hundreds of jobless sailors in Boston and other ports today. (B-2)

The INTERNATIONAL WORKERS ORDER (New England District) is currently circularizing prospective members of a new "Variety Theatre for Boston" for the presentation of social plays. The IWO conducted a meeting this week to launch the project, informants report. (B-2) The MASSACHUSETTS COUNCIL OF AMERICAN-SOVIET FRIENDSHIP, INCORPORATED, sponsored an address by Dorothy COLBY in Boston 25 March. She spoke on "Educational Developments in the Soviet Union" before an audience of approximately 70 persons reported by an informant to be Communists or fellow travelers. Nine servicemen attended. (A-1) The same organization will sponsor a concert of American and Russian music 18 April in Symphony Hall, Boston. The guest of honor for the occasion will be Anatole YAKOVLEV of the Consulate General of the USSR. (B-2)

A group of leading Jewish citizens in Greater Boston met last week and formed as a permanent organization the Boston AMELIAN COMMITTEE which will have as its immediate objective the providing of sustenance and educational opportunities for 500 Jewish orphans in Russia. (A six-week campaign to raise money has been launched and $50,000 is the goal. A reliable source reveals that Communists will attempt to infiltrate this organization as a means of gaining followers among the middle and upper class Jewish population in the area. (B-2)

Singling out Otis Archer HOOD, legislative agent for the CPA in Massachusetts as he sat in the gallery of the State House in Boston 28 March, Representative Joseph B. HARRINGTON, Salem, Massachusetts, attacked HOOD and Communists in general as he led a fight which culminated in the Massachusetts House of Representatives adopting a resolution asking President Roosevelt and Congress to "halt the trend towards national socialism." HARRINGTON, who was a leading isolationist in this area as well as an AMERICA FIRSTER at the time of Pearl Harbor, pointed out that Communists had "bored their way like termites" into the Democratic Party. He described HOOD as "that damned fellow traveler." When asked if he was "on the payroll of Propaganda Minister Goebbels," HARRINGTON ignored the inquiry and turned his attack on the CIO Political Action Committee. (B-2)

q/s The unknown individual was later identified by the Philadelphia Field Division as WALTER CARL NEUNSON who resides at that address. The New York files reflect that an IVANI PABLOVICH VORONIN arrived at San Francisco February 6, 1941 from Russia. This man was born at Moscow January 15, 1913 and came to the United States as a technician attached to the GLAVESPRON COMMISSION with the ANTORG TRADING CORPORATION. While in the United States he studied production under contract with RCA at Camden, New Jersey. He allegedly departed from the United States at Los Angeles on May 16, 1941 on the SS ANNE JOHNSON. (u)

The files also reflect that an I. VORONIN, who may be identical with this man, received $494 from the ANTORG CORPORATION some time between March 1 and September 12, 1941. (u)

The New York files further reflect that one ARSENY PETROVICH VORONIN entered the United States January 18, 1945 at Seattle on the SS DVINA and began his duties as a clerk at the SOVIET EMBASSY at Washington, D. C., January 27, 1945. This individual was born February 28, 1912 and between 1940 and 1945 was employed as a worker at an aviation plant in Moscow. (u)

In a teletype to the Bureau dated January 23, 1946 authority was requested for the placing of a mail cover on ANATOLI YAKOVLEV, apartment 19, 3 West 108th Street, New York City, for thirty days. Bureau permission was given and this mail cover was unproductive. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (u)

On February 4, 1946 Special Agent THEODORE G. KIRSCHNER contacted Deputy Surveyor JOHN A. O'SHEA at the United States Customs Office and placed a stop covering the Port of New York against the subject's name. Mr. O'SHEA was advised that this stop would be confirmed by a letter from our Washington office within a short time. (u)

q/s Mr. O'SHEA stated that this office would be notified should the subject attempt to leave the Port of New York. However, it was pointed out that the subject could possibly depart from the United States as a crew member on an outgoing ship without it coming to the attention of Customs, since crew members are no longer checked out by Customs. [REDACTED] LESLIE and DR. STUART MUDD and MRS. EMILY MUDD of Philadelphia left U.S. for Moscow via SILA plane via Stockholm on 8/15/46, to represent American-Soviet Medical Society. Baggage searched by Customs and revealed DR. LESLIE had quantity of undeclared penicillin. All three had numerous technical notes and papers on medical bacteriological and birth control subjects. The Honorable

Sir:

I have the honor to refer to the Department's secret circular of March 6, 1948, 8:45 a.m., and my despatch No. 544 of April 21, 1948, and to transmit herewith list of the officers and employees assigned to the various Soviet and satellite diplomatic and consular offices in France.

These lists, which were prepared by the Ministry
for Foreign Affairs, were obtained after repeated requests and only after the Embassy had first furnished a list, obtained from the report No. 4301.18, of Soviet and satellite officials in the United States. While the information transmitted herewith is believed to have been correct at the time the lists were prepared by the Foreign Office, it is apparent that in view of the constant movement of Soviet and satellite personnel to and from France, and such lists rapidly become obsolete. The Ministry is therefore endeavoring to reach a working arrangement with the Foreign Office whereby similar lists, as well as reports on the movements of Soviet and satellite officials, will be periodically made available to the Embassy. In the discussions which have taken place it has been made clear that the Foreign Office is only prepared to furnish such information on a basis of strict reciprocity.

It is therefore requested that the Department make available to the Embassy, preferably on a monthly basis, both a list of Soviet and satellite personnel in the United States and a report on the movement of such personnel to and from the United States during the month in question.

The Embassy is also endeavoring to obtain through other facilities at its disposal further information on the presence in France of Soviet and satellite personnel as well as reports on their movements. This information will be furnished to the Department as it becomes available.

Respectfully,
F B I

The files of New York City T-5 further reflect that the American Peoples Chorus is comprised of "young people who represent a left wing labor group with definite Communist leanings."

The applicant's Loyalty form, previously described, reflects residence at 145 Second Avenue, New York City during 1941 - 1942, as well as present membership in the organization, the American Veterans Committee.

Concerning the American Veterans Committee, an article in the May 12, 1946 issue of the "New York Times" reflects that at the first convention of the Metropolitan Area Council of the American Veterans Committee, LARRY KNOBEL, Executive Secretary, when accused of being a Communist Party member, refused to affirm or deny the accusation.

The January 15, 1947 issue of the "New York Sun" reflects that the American Veterans Committee does not consider its Communist problem nation wide but that it admitted that the New York Area Chapter (Metropolitan Area Council) was "red ridden."

that a shortwave broadcast would be made on December 31, 1944, at 15 o'clock, twenty minutes, Moscow time (8:20 A.M. New York time), wave length 19.7 and 31.43 meters, by the leaders of the Joint Anti-Fascist Committee at Moscow including (Professor SOLOMON) MIKHOELS, (SHACHNER) EPSTEIN, (ITZEK) FEFFER, BERGELSON, KALKIN, KVIKCO and ZOOSKIN, all phonetic. YAKOVLEV apparently had no previous knowledge concerning the broadcast. (X)(u)

The above is included here since it is known that ESTHER RAND, in her business activities, uses her maiden name, TREBACH. If the above individual who contacted the Soviet Consulate is identical with the subject it would appear that in 1944 the subject was employed by the Committee of Jewish Writers and Artists in New York. (X)(u)

o/s It will be recalled from information contained in the writer's report of February 13, 1948, that ESTHER RAND departed from New York by plane for Paris on January 27, 1948, as a member of a delegation of the United Jewish Appeal with which she is employed. On February 19, 1948, an article appeared in the New York "Daily News" reflecting that Arabs had shot at a delegation of the UJA which was touring Palestine. The article stated that 28 American delegates of the UJA, on a tour of inspection of European Jewish Displaced Persons Camps and Palestine, were travelling in Palestine from Tel Aviv to Haifa when Arabs fired on their armored buses. None of the delegates was injured. However, they were reportedly badly shaken by the attack which occurred near Mount Carmel and were indignant concerning the fact that British Airborne Troops searched them for weapons on the suspicion that the first shots had been fired by the delegates. The article then stated that one of the delegates was Mrs. ESTHER T. RAND of New York.

On February 26, 1948, the subject arrived at LaGuardia Airport by airplane from Paris. With the aid of Confidential Informant T-2 a search was conducted of the subject's brief case without her knowledge and the contents of the case were photographed. The material contained in the brief case appeared to relate solely to her activities as secretary of the UJA delegation. One copy of the photographs of this material is being retained in the New York file and one copy is being forwarded to the Bureau in the event that any portion may become pertinent to this investigation at a later date. The material has been completely reviewed and since it does not appear of importance it is not being set out in detail at this time. However, various individuals mentioned in the material are being listed in
